

INCLUSIVE TOMORROW

Multi-Channel Marketing Campaign

Presented by Cynthia Ndakola

List Of Content

Introduction

1

My Role & Objectives

2

Challenges & Solution

3

Deliverables

4

Insights

5

Takeaways

6

Inclusive Tomorrow Spring Campaign – Reflection

- Multi-channel marketing project for Inclusive Tomorrow
- Goal: Drive raffle ticket sales while promoting inclusive change
- Channels: Social Media, Podcast Guest Spots, Influencer Collabs, Email & Display Ads
- Role: Junior Digital Marketer – campaign planning & coordination

My Role and Campaign Objectives

Role: Junior Digital Marketer

Responsibilities:

- Build multi-channel campaign strategy
- Develop channel content & CTA plan
- Support creative briefs and analytics tracking

Objectives:

- Increase awareness and engagement
- Drive conversions through cohesive storytelling

Approach and Strategy

Designed funnel-based strategy: Awareness → Engagement → Conversion

Used storytelling to connect with audiences emotionally

Reinforced consistent CTAs across platforms

Partnered with product team to reintegrate Google tracking

Roadblocks and Challenges

- Difficulty integrating and tracking cross-channel data
 - Tracking delayed due to developer handover
 - Solution: research + proactive collaboration with new developer
 - Lesson: align on tech needs early
-
-

Deliverable 1: Campaign Strategy Document

- Outlined goals, target audiences, funnel stages, and key messages
- Defined KPIs and success metrics per channel
- Mapped awareness, engagement, and conversion tactics
- Served as the master guide for the entire campaign

Deliverable 2: Communication & CTA Matrix

- Mapped messaging by funnel stage and channel
- Ensured tone and visuals aligned with Inclusive Tomorrow's values
- Defined clear CTAs for each platform
- Example: "Learn more and get your ticket at inclusivetomorrow.org"

Deliverable 3: Creative Brief for Product Team

- Explained need to reintegrate Google tracking for the spring campaign
- Clarified goals, KPIs, and data collection requirements
- Provided context for the new developer after team change
- Ensured accurate performance tracking and reporting

The background features a low-angle shot of modern glass skyscrapers on the left, with a blue and orange geometric design overlay. The design includes various triangles, lines, and a large white box containing the main content.

Deliverable 4: Campaign Reflection Report

- Evaluated campaign process, results, and decision-making
- Identified lessons learned and future improvements
- Highlighted cross-team collaboration benefits
- Served as a learning tool for upcoming campaigns

Key Insights and Learnings

Cohesive messaging builds stronger brand impact.

Reliable data tracking improves campaign optimization.

Collaboration tools streamline teamwork.

Informed decisions come from testing and feedback.

Top Takeaways and Next Steps

Top 3 Lessons:

1. Channel alignment = stronger trust
2. Clear KPIs = measurable impact
3. Early collaboration = smoother execution
4. Next Steps:
 - Explore A/B testing & automation tools
 - Deepen analytics and reporting skills

Thank you for your attention!

